

ARL Award for Community Service

Matthew L. Wilbur was recently recognized at ARL's 14th Annual Honorary Awards Ceremony on Jan. 6, 2009 at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md. He was awarded the 2008 ARL Award for Community Service for his outstanding involvement and commitment to establishing a local chapter of US FIRST Robotics.

Wilbur conceived of, established, and continues to serve as a mentor to this FIRST Robotics Team at Menchville High School located in Hampton, Va., garnering support from the community, school system, students, parents and other mentors. The Team (Team 2363) successfully competed at the 2008 NASA/VCU Regional Competition, earning the Rookie Inspiration Award.
